Cites Desperate Need for Fresh Board Leadership For Life

Lorenzo Stunned by Development

Donald J. Trump told The New York Crimes that giving up the presidency was no big deal, and that he was more dedicated to preserving the integrity of the CBS Board. He will be succeeded as president by his son-in-law Jared Kushner. Mr. Trump says that despite a rigged election he was elected to the “Board” by a landslide, and will serve for life.

Mr. Trump has already put the White House up for rent, saying the place was cluttered, drafty, and shabby compared to his magnificent apartment on Fifth Avenue. He says, “The view from the White House was lousy. All I saw were thousands and thousands of people out on the street holding up signs. I have no idea why they were there.”

Mr. Trump says he will work hard to rebuild the CBS Board, reaching out to the best and brightest to help him run it. Until then he will rely on Rudolph W. Giuliani and Chris Christie. “Rudy and Chris do what they’re told,” Mr. Trump says.

News of Mr. Trump’s ascendancy to CBS “Board” Chairman For Life came as a shock to ousted Board chief Richard Lorenzo. “I was blindsided,” he told The New York Crimes.

Mr. Trump says his first action will be to investigate the religious affiliations of all Board members. “You can’t be too careful,” Mr. Trump says. “Keeping the Board safe is my primary obligation.” He says suspect members will be held in indefinite detention, which they will pay for, until cleared.

Mr. Trump insists his goal is to bring people together. “I’m against walls,” he says. “Except for Mexico.”

ED SILVERMAN WINS CBS BOARD ‘LIFETIME AWARD’

Ed Silverman was cited by the CBS Board for his distinguished career in broadcast journalism. He served as a TV network news correspondent, commentator, analyst and producer. He was Assistant Director of News Operations for the ABC TV network and Director of News and Public Affairs for WABC-TV, New York.

Silverman earned eleven Emmy Awards, the Albert Lasker Foundation Award for medical journalism and numerous other major awards for news and documentaries.

LORENZO VOWS FIGHT TO REGAIN POSITION

Richard Lorenzo says he will not take his ouster by Donald J. Trump sitting down, and is planning legal action in New Jersey’s small-claims court to regain his position as CBS Board Chairman.

Lorenzo was particularly offended by Mr. Trump’s decision to rescind Lorenzo’s plans to relocate the Board meetings to a falafel place in Fort Lee, NJ.

In the meantime, Mr. Lorenzo intends to devote his attention to building his Internet rock ’n roll tribute site, The Relic Rack, and is planning a month-long tribute to the music of Pat Boone and Guy Lombardo.

CBS BOARD EDITORIAL

Newly-elected CBS Board Chairman For Life Donald J. Trump has determined there will be no more editorials in this publication.

TRUMP VETOES ENTERCOM DEAL

Sells CBS Radio to Mexico

Asserting that it was absurd to believe that Americans still listened to radio, CBS Board Chairman For Life Donald J. Trump has scuttled the CBS Radio/Entercom merger, and is selling the radio division to Mexico for fifteen-billion dollars.

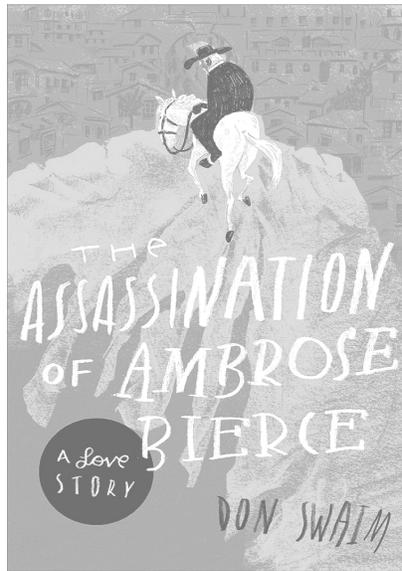

“Only Mexicans would swallow a deal so stupid,” Mr. Trump said, adding that he knew a lot about stupid. “They could have had it for fifteen-hundred.”

He also indicated that this clearly was the way to make Mexico pay for “a beautiful, beautiful wall.”

TRUMP: ‘CRIMES IS FAKE NEWS’

CBS Board Chairman For Life Donald J. Trump accuses The New York Crimes of spreading false news and scattering lies.

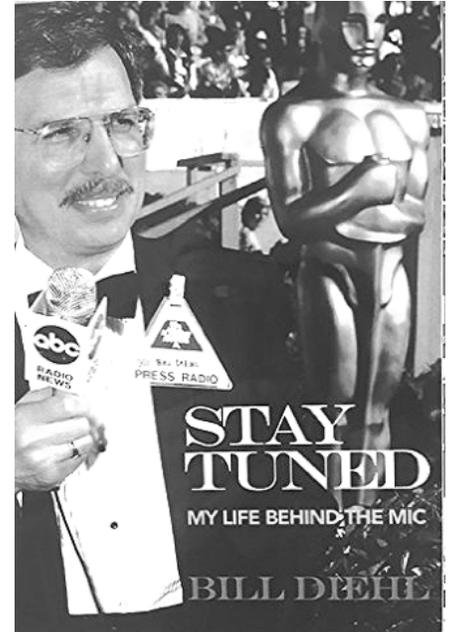

The Crimes is a fake news source, Mr. Trump maintained, adding that The Crimes used to be a “great” publication, but is now decadent, conscienceless, and unethical.

When asked for a response, The Crimes refused comment, saying its editor had gone into hiding.

“Mervin Block's book is fake news.” — Donald J. Trump

JOKE: How do you know you're reading one of Donald J. Trump's ghost-written books? It starts on Chapter 11.

TRUMP: 'YOU'RE A SLEAZE'

CBS Board Chairman For Life Donald J. Trump, calling like it is, accused a CBS Board member of being “a sleaze.”

“No one knows more about sleaze than I do,” Mr. Trump asserted.

The Board member, who begged not to be identified, immediately confessed, falling to his knees and appealing for forgiveness.

The unidentified Board member was the recipient of Pulitzer and Nobel prizes, which he has returned.

“This controversy was never about myself,” Mr. Trump said. “I'm only thinking of the American people.”

TRUMP: 'A GREAT TEMPERAMENT'

Donald J. Trump says the CBS Board should be proud to have him as Board Chairman for Life because, “I have the greatest temperament than anybody else.”

Further, he said, “My temperament is my strongest asset.”

He went on to say that it's all a matter of judgment, and that leading the CBS Board requires tact and delicacy and a tacit understanding of human nature.

Those who disagree, he said, should get the hell out of the country.

TRUMP PRAISES U.S. NEWS MEDIA

CBS Board Chairman For Life Donald J. Trump has issued a statement commending the news media for its quality and high, ethical standards.

“The American press is the greatest,” Mr. Trump said, “particularly CBS and CNN.” He also complimented the media for steadfastly reporting the truth as well as its accuracy.

Mr. Trump was especially effusive in applauding The New York Crimes, The Washington Post, and Politico.

“No one loves the First Amendment more than I do,” Mr. Trump asserted, saying that as CBS Board Chairman he will work to strengthen freedom of the press and the rights of journalists to protect their sources.

He said, “Powerful tryants who try to humble and humiliate the press should be deported without recourse to legal representation.”

TRUMP: ‘PROBE AMERICA’S ENEMIES’

Newly-elected CBS Board Chairman For Life Donald J. Trump says it’s time that “enemies of the American people” are exposed as to what they are.

Specifically, he said, these enemies are members of the news media who operate irresponsibly under cover of the First Amendment, which “is highly overrated.”

Mr. Trump said, “It is time to stand up for American values and the defense of the America flag, which are lacking among the so-called press.”

Mr. Trump called on the Justice Department to appoint a special prosecutor to investigate and take legal action against all major media, both print and broadcast.

“Something is going on,” Mr. Trump said, “and we have to get to the bottom of it.”

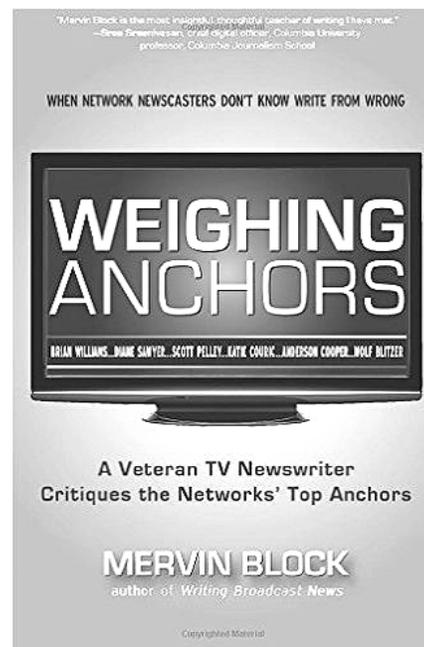

When asked specifically which news media are enemies, Mr. Trump cited 650 news sources, print and broadcast.
