

The Book Thing

You have to be a little nuts to shell out $15 for this book thing. I don't even know if it has a name, but I found it in a mediocre bookshop near Philly. It's made of pine, has a moveable rack, a batch of holes into which one can insert pegs. It holds and displays books of almost any size.

Props up a book which you might be referring to while typing. The question is, who would actually buy an adjustable piece of wood to hold an actual book?
